

1995 Person of the Year

The Person of the Year Award is in recognition of Tom's outstanding contributions to the warehouse distributors and in appreciation of his conscientious dedication as an individual member of the specialty equipment industry.

Tom Bougie, G.T. Styling

Tom started in the automotive aftermarket in 1971 with Central States Warehouse. Following a nine year tenure with Central States, Bougie moved to Minneapolis, MN and took a position with Minnesota Auto Specialties and later Propper Oil Co. After leaving Propper Oil Co., he started his own business. In 1984 Bougie sold his business and moved to California where he started as Sales Manager for G.T. Styling, Inc. and has remained for the past ten years.
